

UConn Baseball Internship Curriculum

POSITION OVERVIEW:

- Develop experiences that meet your objectives
- Create vision, focus, and needs to optimize goals
- Learn how to work in a team setting to complete task at hand
- Get exposure to working in the sports industry.
- Develop an understanding of applying your educational background into the sporting world
- Create a competitive advantage

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Innovative applications to find patterns in team and individual outcomes
- Projection of success probability (Team/Individual/Situational)
- Working on projecting player performance based on advanced metrics collected by the team
- Modeling and diagraming past performance for team to use as optimization tools and to learn from
- Scouting opposition in-season to prepare team for their opponents, utilizing scouting software and identifying important statistics and metrics
- Look beyond the traditional statistics to find greatest performance measurements
- Working with sabermetrics, analytics, statistics, metrics, data entry and data analysis
- Social Media projects
- Work in a team environment creating cohesiveness
- Completing duties assigned
- D1 Operations